EVENTS/PROGRAMS:

RECAP:

One Pill Can Kill - see notes above in Superintendent update

Kevin Hines - about 150 attendees for evening presentation. Successful student and community events. Kevin Hines will be sharing his full length documentary for school or community use...more details coming.

UPCOMING:

Principal Winter Reading Night - 1/18 4:30 and 6:30pm (1/25 snow date)

Plans are underway, more details coming soon.

OTHER BUSINESS:

TREASURER UPDATE - Kelly O'Donnell

- Venmo being explored as an option to take in donations and payments. Part of PayPal family. Fees similar to PayPal. Need to verify how we can separate out transactions so we know how to account for them (ie Support vs S&S vs other event)
- Submit reimbursements in a timely manner. This is even more important with the fact that we are trending behind on fundraisers
- Reminder of ORK/AIR budgets to be spent

MARKETING UPDATE - Tejal Saraiya

Push is for Ski and Skate sale

Running on electronic sign, signs are up around town, social media posts, Radio PSA coming soon, etc.

Please share event posts in other Facebook groups

LIAISON REPORTS - Send to Sue by Friday for inclusion in meeting minutes

PWS - not submitted

Memorial Elementary School – November 3, 2023 Principal Meeting with Mr. Schappler

-Important Dates for Memorial:

- Stuff the Turkey Food Drive November thru December
- Adopt a Family – Starts in December
- Coffee Cart – Holiday Themed

-Memorial's Family Fun Night of Bingo was a huge success and this event will be on the calendar for next year

-The 1st and 2nd graders had a Halloween parade through the school where students, teachers and staff were able to enjoy. This was the school's first year with a Halloween parade and it will continue as a tradition.

-On November 6th, Memorial had an all school meeting

-For the first time, BEEP teachers are hosting a seminar for its parents to discuss some tips and ways to assist in organization, to work with feelings, to help create routines and to help with things that may arise with the holidays coming up.

RBS November Liaison Notes

- First coffee cart of the year was successful
- Next RBS popcorn day will be 12/8
- Getting through Parent/Teacher conferences over the next few days
- RBS is offering apparel to order for students, staff, and parents through Drop Anchor. An RBS dedicated site was distributed to parents via Principal's Notes

McKelvie November Liaison Notes

McKelvie hosted a Veteran's Day celebration on Thursday, November 9th. Around 45 Veterans came to the school to share their experiences, answer questions and spend time with students. This event was very well received with students engaged and eager to ask thoughtful questions. The event was such a success that there are plans to continue this event in the future.

RAL liaison meeting notes from November 8, 2023

Attended by: Ed Joyce, Linnea Hilchey, Maddie Racine, Jess von Wallenstein

- Ed Joyce has decided to not have a Lurgio Grandfriends' Day moving forward
- PTG provided a potluck dinner for Parent/teacher conferences that was very well received
- PTG to provide treats for final staff meeting prior to Winter Break
- The 8th grade will be celebrating Solstice with teacher-led activity sessions
- Fall sports seasons have completed, and winter sports are starting
- The Lurgio musical this year will be Frozen, Jr.
- Advisory will be collecting donations to form Holiday Baskets to help those in need

BHS PTG Report November 2023

- Cookie Caper planned for December - earlier date this year so it won't conflict with Advisory and other holiday parties
- Roman Museum - set up at BHS and expanded to a week this year at the end of September. Not only Latin classes but also Roots of Thoughts classes were able to visit with the expanded time frame. It was a hit and there was a request for other classes to be able to see it next year. Students and staff were appreciative of the PTG funding to make this possible.
- School events: Kevin Hines spoke to 11th graders during the day on Oct. 30 and was well received; Some students also attended the community presentation in the evening.

MINUTES APPROVED BY BOARD AS WRITTEN 12/13/23
